SO YOU THINK YOU'RE NIGERIAN

A BOARDGAME

#SOYOUTHINKYOUARENIGERIAN

We introduce to you Harden and Bron's debut board game, SO YOU THINK YOU'RE NIGERIAN.

The SO YOU THINK YOU'RE NIGERIAN game is a card and board combination game that has trivia questions on Nigeria.

There are 400 questions in all and they come in categories such as entertainment, history, geography, culture and sports. The board has consequence boxes that reflect on everyday Nigerian living- good and bad.

INTRODUCTION

THE SYTYN game is a fun and educational board game for the whole family. It is great to play with, to teach with or both.

The game serves to test our knowledge of Nigerian culture, history, entertainment, geography, sports and people.

OBJECTIVE OF THE GAME

Players move around the board by answering questions and rolling dice. First player to reach ASO Rock wins the game.

PLAYING THE GAME

Cards are shuffled and set in 4 piles (by colour) in the middle of board. Each player selects a token and places it on START. Game play is clockwise. Player one takes the dice and selects a colour (player 1 can be selected arbitrarily or by rolling the dice for the highest number).

The player immediately to their right picks the top card off the pile of the selected colour and reads it. Player 1 has 30 seconds to answer the question. If they get it right, they play the dice and move forward the number of steps indicated.

If the player lands on a consequence space, they obey the instructions on the space (move forward or backward, miss a round or play again). - If a player fails to answer a question correctly, their turn ends and they do not move. Play then passes to the left. Players have 30 seconds to answer a question.

End of Play

Play continues until a player reaches ASO Rock. An exact count is not required to finish.
